

Creating Impact With Technology – A Practical Approach Michael Moncada

Michael Moncada is an 8-year Military Veteran and CEO Of 3D Veterans. 3D Veterans is an organization that trains veterans in emerging technologies for opportunities in the workforce, business and education. With a successful Google funded pilot program boot camp in San Antonio , TX that trained veterans how to utilize 3D modeling and additive manufacturing methods to create assistive devices for veterans with disabilities, Michael is going to talk about the success of the first program, upcoming projects and using Human Centered Design Thinking to create meaningful organizations and products. Additionally, he will be speaking about ways to reach your audience organically through meaningful missions.

His company is expanding to 3 states, has been invited to The White House twice within 1 year of transitioning from the military, collaborating with some of the largest organizations in the world and has positioned itself as one of the premier workforce education programs for emerging technologies.

Michael will be bringing along sample 3D printed prototypes that his veteran students created and will highlight 2 veterans, Sean Garcia and Ben Fennen ,who recently completed the 6 week intensive boot camp and are now offering their design and 3D printing services to you. They will talk about their experience in the course and the services they are offering.

Also, please take this opportunity to pay 2017 annual dues ($25/$95 Corporate). Thanks!
