The Thinking Secrets of Master Inventors

Robert Mikel

Robert Mikel will be our speaker for January 2013 and will speak on, The Thinking Secrets of Master Inventors. Master Inventors like Edison, Bell, Westinghouse and Tesla used unique, specific thinking principles, laws and strategies, unknown to most people then and now, to create their inventions and change the world. During this dynamic presentation you will learn such thinking secrets as:

- * Why resolutions and goals are not enough
- * Why people lose their motivation during the inventive process and how to overcome it
- * A proven method for overcoming resistance for monetizing your invention
- * What successful inventors do to create, accelerate and sustain great results
- * Two strategies to discover the next best step toward promoting your invention
- * And much more!

As a Certified Life Mastery Consultant and Coach, Robert is dedicated to assisting people, using proven tools and support, in changing from their present state to where they really want to be, both personally and professionally.

He works with entrepreneurs, as well as other professionals at all levels of service and management, to help them clarify their vision and plans, accelerate their results and achieve greater success and fulfillment in their lives.

Having a broad background, as a wellness marketing executive, a San Antonio firefighter, a paramedic, an EMS lieutenant and a creative do-it-yourself-er, Mr. Mikel is able to offer rich, valuable, broad-based knowledge and experience in assisting inventors and entrepreneurs achieve their goals and dreams.

Also, please take this opportunity to pay your annual dues ($25/$95 Corporate), thanks!
