Mr. Sandoval will be our speaker for May and will speak on “Media Marketing – How to Use Online Tools for Business, Marketing, Branding and Networking”.

Mr. Sandoval’s presentation will assist inventors and entrepreneurs in developing an understanding of the various online tools available in order to make connections online, extend their brand, and increase awareness for what they are doing. While more brands are taking their presence online, mistakes can be avoided with education on tool use, etiquette, and maximizing the use of the network.
